

Parishioner Magazine

PUBLIC EXHIBITION

Lafarge Aggregates, the operator of the award winning Whitlingham quarry in Norwich, is proposing to extract sand and gravel from land off Fen Lane, near Ditchingham.

The company is holding an exhibition to publicise its proposals on Monday 18th July at the Kings Head Hotel, Market Place, Bungay from 2.30 - 8.00pm.

Interested local residents and organisations will be able to see plans showing the draft working and restoration proposals and talk to representatives from the company and its specialist consultants.

Please contact the Planning Information Line (24 hour answerphone) if you require any further information 01992 512764.

1/2 page Adverts

The BELLAIRES
Handbell Ringers

are seeking two or more new members to join the team. It is not necessary to be able to read music, although it is an advantage.

A sense of humour is essential and some dedication is required.

No pressure is put on any member to attend if another commitment clashes with either practices or performances. There is no financial outlay apart from weekly attendance fees, which are used to cover costs such as hall hire, insurance, music etc.

If you are looking for a hobby which is fun and relaxing this is for you. Any age considered, our team range in age from eight years to eighty plus, and we are a mixed group so either sex is welcome.

We meet on Tuesdays at 7.30pm in Broome Village Hall.

You are welcome to come and see us there or contact Doreen or Ken Spencer on 01508- 518486.

A warm welcome awaits you.